

Who to beat? It's the Owls

West Lawn, which finished as the runner-up in Berks, Region 2 and the state last season, has a large group of talented returnees and goes into the season as the favorite in the Berks Legion League.

Though last year's team went further than any in the history of West Lawn Owls Legion baseball, Tony Matz III doesn't consider that group to be the best he's coached.

That would be his talented 1999 bunch, which won a team-record 43 games.

It's a fitting designation for the 2005 Owls, who could have switched their nickname to the Bridesmaids. West Lawn finished second in the Berks Legion League, second at the Region 2 Tournament and second at the Pennsylvania State Tournament to reach the Great Lakes Regional.

It was a memorable season, but the 2006 version of the Owls is aiming higher. Much of last year's group returns, making West Lawn the trendy pre-season pick as league favorite.

"We're really excited to start the season," outfielder Eddie DeJesus said. "We pretty much have everybody back. We lost some pitchers, but we have some other people who are gonna step up."

Matz won't have Ryan Brobst and lefty Marc Hampson this season, but West Lawn still should have one of the deepest staffs in the league.

The ace is Josh Smith, who was 7-2 for Wilson's Berks League championship team this spring. Jason Mays, 19-year-old Dexter Jablonski, lefty Ryan Ebner and Clint Surgeoner round out the staff.

Pitching will be the rock upon which West Lawn's title hopes will be built. It's vital in a league with four or five nine-inning games per week for six weeks. Then comes the tournaments.

"You gotta be able to run pitchers out there Tuesday through Saturday and be able to win five out of six games," Matz said. "To do that, you've gotta have pitching, and lots of it."

The other vital ingredient for this team is chemistry. Last year's somewhat young group developed it as the season progressed. The Owls were close because they won, and they won because they were close.

With so many players returning, West Lawn doesn't have to start from scratch in building that chemistry.

"A lot of teams have a great deal of turnover," outfielder John Schultz said. "We had a younger team last year. This year, we're still mostly younger guys. But we've been together before. We're used to each other."

"It definitely helps when you're out on the field, having that mental edge."

Matz said he feels this team will be among the deepest he's ever had at West Lawn, though he feels that staying healthy will be the biggest key for duplicating or improving on last year's success (Smith and Schultz are nursing minor injuries).

It's a legit concern. Several other teams are capable of winning the league this summer, including usual suspects Boyertown, Shillington and Muhlenberg. Others such as Gregg Post, Exeter, Kutztown and Fleetwood could be in the mix, as well.

Boyertown won the Berks title been this hyped in years. It's an adjustment for a team that entered last season as somewhat of an underdog. "We weren't picked to go very far," Schultz said. "To play as far into the postseason as we did, it turned a lot of heads. I think it even surprised our coaches. That was a big thing, who have been in key roles before. We've got a couple of 10th graders that have some potential and a lot of talent. "Hopefully we can bring that out by the end of the season." The Bears are used to being the league's kingpin. Though West Lawn has been traditionally strong, the Owls haven't last year before getting knocked off in the Region 2 Tournament. Much of that 37-8 team is back. During the high school season, the Bears beat Wilson 4-2 and won the PAC-10 title. "We're a bit inexperienced," Boyertown coach Rick Moatz said. "We have some people re-turning, but not a lot of people

West Lawn selected to host 2007 Mid-Atlantic Regional

A decade ago, the West Lawn Owls decided to make a concentrated effort to elevate the level of their program. They took a big step last year when they qualified for the Great Lakes Regional Tournament.

West Lawn took another earlier this month when it won the rights to host the 2007 Mid-Atlantic Regional Tournament at Owls Field.

"This is huge," West Lawn

president Jay Vaughan said. "This is the next big step for us."

Pennsylvania gets to host a Legion regional tournament every seven years. Last year, when the Owls traveled to Moline, Ill., for the Great Lakes Regional, Vaughan and business manager Mitch Hettinger went along to see if West Lawn would be up to the task in 2007.

"We felt that we could handle it," Vaughan said.

The Owls received the winning bid for the 2007 tournament May 11.

"We just feel extremely pleased and honored to bring something to the western part of Berks County, to give people in this neck of the woods a chance to come out and see some good baseball," Vaughan said. "Plus, it's exposure for our program and our facility."

As the host team, West Lawn will receive an automatic bid to the tournament.

"That is a pretty big deal," outfielder John Schultz said. "That shows that what we did last year turned some heads, gained some respect. Not only in this area, but on the Eastern Seaboard. You can go a couple blocks away and play in a national tournament."

Fegely, Exeter knock off West Lawn

Anthony Fegely allows one hit in 6<sup>2</sup>/<sub>3</sub> innings to lead the Blue Jays to the 5-4 win over the Owls.

From our news staff

Anthony Fegely allowed just one hit over 6<sup>2</sup>/<sub>3</sub> innings to overcome seven walks as Exeter knocked off preseason favorite West Lawn 5-4 in a Berks Legion League opener Tuesday night at Reiffton.

The Blue Jays won the Red Division game after opening a 5-0 lead through the first five innings, as Fegely struck out five. Fegely walked four of the first five batters in the sixth to force in a run.

Josh Smith followed with a grounder up the middle that resulted in a force play at second base that scored West Lawn's second run, but the throw to first in attempt to complete the double play was wild, allowing another run to score. A throw to second to try to get Smith advancing to second went into left field and allowed Smith to come all the way around to make it 5-4.

Mike Lloyd pitched the final 2<sup>1</sup>/<sub>3</sub> innings and allowed one hit to earn the save for Exeter, which had 10 hits. Josh McDevitt went 3-for-5 and Chris Murray was 2-for-3 for the Blue Jays.

Crable's RBI single helps Bears rally to beat Owls in 9th inning

Boyertown, down 5-0 after two innings, stages a comeback capped by a two-out, game-winning single from Garrett Crable.

From our news staff

Garrett Crable's two-out, RBI single in the bottom of the ninth plated Alex Neiman with the winning run, and Boyertown completed a comeback to beat West Lawn 9-8 in a Berks Legion League classic at Bear Stadium.

The Bears (4-0, 8-0) trailed the Owls (0-3, 2-4) 5-0 after two innings of the Red Division game, and were still behind 8-4 entering the bottom of the eight. But Ken Thorpe's two-out, RBI double completed a four-run frame that tied it at 8-8, setting up Crable's walkoff heroics in the ninth.

Alex Neiman (1-0) picked up the win with 1 $\frac{2}{3}$  innings of scoreless, one-hit relief. Thorpe went 3-for-5 and drove in three, Nole Saylor went 3-for-5 with two RBIs, and Neiman had three hits for Boyertown.

For West Lawn, Dexter Jablonski had a double, a triple, scored twice and drove in a run, and Craig O'Dear

West Lawn pounds Keys in showdown

From our news staff

Josh Smith fired a four-hitter and struck out eight and Eddie DeJesus and John Schultz sparked a season-best offensive explosion as West Lawn routed previously unbeaten Gregg Post 17-3 in a Berks Legion League Red Division showdown Monday night at Owls Field.

Berks Legion

The Keys (8-1, 11-1) took the early lead on Joe Pietrobone's first-inning RBI single, but the Owls (7-3, 9-6) went up to stay with a three-run third capped by Marcus Sabolis' RBI single.

DeJesus (2-for-3, three runs, two RBIs) had an RBI triple in a four-run fourth, and Schultz (2-for-4, three runs, three RBIs) singled in two runs in an eight-run fifth that blew it open.

The game was halted after 6½ innings by the 12-run rule.

Craig O'Deair had two hits and three RBIs and Smith scored three runs for West Lawn. For the Keys, Matt Lillis was 2-for-2 and Pietrobone 2-for-3.

Streak hits 11 as Owls top Rams

West Lawn runs its league winning streak to 11 with a victory over Topton.

From our news staff

Jason Mays tossed eight innings of three-hit shutout ball and Josh Smith went 3-for-3 with four runs and two RBIs as West Lawn defeated Topton 10-0 in a Berks Legion League game Wednesday night at Owls Field.

Jason Mays
West Lawn

It was the 11th straight league victory for the Owls (11-3 Red, 13-7), who moved into a virtual second-place tie with Gregg Post (10-2, 13-2), three games behind first-place Boyertown.

The game was halted in the top of the ninth, when Topton pitcher Brad Stoudt was ejected after hitting Smith with a pitch. The Rams (6-7 Blue, 6-7) already had used all three reserves, resulting in a forfeit victory.

Mays struck out seven and walked one.

John Schultz went 2-for-4 with three RBIs and Jordan Keller went 2-for-4 with two runs for the Owls, who broke open a scoreless game with a five-run second highlighted by RBIs singles from Ryan Ebner, Smith and Schultz.

Flashy outing by Smith

Josh Smith strikes out 10 in eight innings as West Lawn defeats Shillington for its 12th straight league win.

By Don Stewart
Reading Eagle

There's no game clock in baseball, but the darkness creeping into Shillington from the south sparked Josh Smith into a two-minute drill of sorts.

He retired the final 10 batters he faced, but the lightning began to flash a bit too close to Rulon L. Griffith Field in the top of the ninth. Smith didn't beat the weather, but his West Lawn team beat the Red Sox 5-1 in a Berks Legion League Red Division matchup.

West Lawn 5
Shillington 1

"I didn't want to pitch in the rain, really," Smith said. "So I was just trying to pick the pace up a little bit, hit my spots so I could get it over with quicker."

Smith, who transferred from Gov. Mifflin in 2003, always seems to pitch his best against his former teammates. He was typically sharp Thursday night, allowing an unearned run on four hits while striking out 10.

The senior-to-be got through eight innings on 114 pitches to improve to 4-0 in league play. The win puts West Lawn (12-3, 14-7) on the verge of a playoff berth.

"I can't wait to pitch against Mifflin," Smith said. "I always get fired up. It's my rival. I used to go there. All those kids, I've played with them since I was in Diamond League. I get pumped."

Shillington also got strong pitching from starter Mike Bucklin and Sam Eagleson, but errors put them in a hole they couldn't crawl out of against Smith.

In the third, Smith reached on an error, stole second, then reached third on a Bucklin wild pitch. He scored with two outs when John Schultz hit a fly ball that sailed over the head of center fielder Brad Rhoads.

Schultz, who reached third on the play, scored on a Craig O'Dear single.

The Red Sox (8-5, 12-6) cut it to 2-1 in the bottom of the inning when Bucklin scored Mark Yost on a sacrifice fly to left. But two errors in the fourth allowed West Lawn's Ryan Ebner to score on a Smith groundout.

Ebner then drove in a pair of runs with the bases loaded in the fifth. His grounder up the middle resulted in a run and a force at second, but Shillington's failed attempt to complete the double play enabled the second run to score.

The Red Sox are missing catcher Matt Palange, who was hitting at a near .500 clip before leaving for West Point last weekend. They finished with four errors.

"Where we cost ourselves was not backing up our pitchers," Shillington coach Chris Hole said. "I'm real proud of Bucklin and Eagleson. They threw extremely well, we just didn't make plays when we had to."

With five league games remaining, Shillington is left battling for the final Red Division playoff spot with Exeter (8-4, 16-5). Meanwhile, the Owls won their 12th straight league game after an 0-3 start.

The key has been the improved health of a few key players, including Smith, who missed the first 15 days of the Legion season due to a tired arm.

"Starting 0-3 really put us in a dire situation," Owls coach Tony Matz III said. "We couldn't have any slip-ups. We got healthy and the kids have responded."

Exeter downs West Lawn, delays Owls playoff berth

From our news services

Exeter took advantage of eight West Lawn errors and kept the Owls from securing a playoff berth in the Red Division with a 10-8 victory Sunday at Owls Field.

West Lawn made six of those errors in the sixth and seventh innings, when Exeter (9-5, 18-7) scored a combined seven runs, with Tommy Rivas's two-run single the biggest hit. Exeter overcame 15 walks as West Lawn (12-4, 15-8) left 16 runners on base.

Rivas was 3-for-4 with a double, drove in three runs and scored two, for Exeter, and Corey Fetter was 2-for-4 with two runs and an RBI.

■ West Lawn 7, Gregg Post 6:
 At George Field, poor defense hurt both teams, and an unearned, eighth-inning run proved to be the difference as the Owls (13-4, 16-9) edged the Keys (12-3, 15-3) in the Red Division.

The loss, combined with Boyertown's 2-0 win over Shillington, ended Gregg Post's division-title hopes.

West Lawn's Craig O'Deair reached when Dave Walker dropped a ball in right field, and later scored on a wild pitch to break a 4-4 tie in the eighth. The Owls, who added two more in the ninth before Gregg Post scored twice in its half, never trailed again.

Josh Smith (5-0) allowed just four hits and struck out 10, helping him overcome seven walks.

Owls find lots to love about win

Streaking West Lawn hands Boyertown first league loss of season

By Don Stewart
Reading Eagle

As they celebrated their biggest win of the season, the West Lawn Owls were serenaded by Dean Martin's "That's Amore," which blared through the Owls Field loudspeakers.

West Lawn 7 Boyertown 2

Well, it's better than "Who Let the Dogs Out?"

In a way, it was a fitting song. West Lawn coach Tony Matz III saw plenty of things to love Friday night as his Owls dominated rival Boyertown 7-2, handing the Bears their first Berks Legion League loss of the season.

Matz loved the way Dexter Jablonski (6-1) threw. West Lawn's No. 2 pitcher gave up two runs in eight innings against a team averaging 14.3 runs per game in league play. Boyertown didn't get on the board until the eighth, when Jablonski reached 125 pitches.

Matz loved Craig O'Dear's play in the field. O'Dear made several big grabs at third, including a run-saving snare on a Kenny Thorpe liner in the eighth.

Matz also loved the all-around effort of John Schultz, who had a pair of triples, two RBIs and two runs before striking out the side in the ninth to end it.

"Typically, when you need three outs to win a game against them, they're the hardest three outs you're gonna get," Matz said. "John really made it nice and relaxed in the dugout."

It capped a remarkable regular season finish for the Owls (14-4, 17-9), who lost their first three league games during a 2-4 start. They bounced back to win 14-of-15 in the league, putting themselves in position for the No. 2 seed in next week's Berks tournament.

After the rough start, the Owls set a goal of winning each of their remaining league games. They put a list in the dugout to help them utilize the one-game-at-a-time cliché.

"We just looked at the next team on the list after every game," Schultz said. "I don't think we looked ahead at all."

Maybe not, but there was still plenty of energy in the West Lawn dugout Friday night. The Owls took command in the first, when Schultz tripled in Josh Smith, then scored on an O'Dear groundout.

In the fourth, with runners on first and second, West Lawn's Scott Krotee hit a two-out grounder to third that was thrown away by Cody Kulp, allowing both runs to score.

Schultz tripled in another run in the fifth before scoring on another error. In the eighth, Josh Smith tripled to score Jeff Smith (no relation) on a play that begs for a "Matrix" reference.

The Bears (16-1, 27-3) had won 10 straight against the Owls, dating to 2000. Boyertown was a 9-8 winner earlier this season at Bear Stadium. "Whenever you end a team's perfect season, it's always great," Schultz said. "We haven't had much success against Boyertown. It's big for us, big as a whole. It gives us a lot of momentum entering playoffs."

It also throws a little more intrigue into the league tournament, which was looking like a one-horse race until Friday.

"The most important aspect of tonight was that we played a great game against arguably the best team in our county right now," Matz said. "I don't even think there's an argument right now — they're the best."

"So for us to come out and play that well, that's a lift."

And that's amore.

O'Dear, Smith lift West Lawn

Craig O'Dear has a big night at the plate and Josh Smith throws seven solid innings to lead the Owls past Exeter in a Berks Legion League playoff opener.

By Don Stewart

This year's West Lawn Legion team has standouts all over the place, the most notable being pitcher Josh Smith, who draws big league scouts for his starts.

But the Owls' most underrated player might be third baseman Craig O'Dear. The recent Wilson grad has been Berks Legion's version of Eric Chavez in the field this season.

Offensively, he's picked up his production enough for coach Tony Matz III to play him at the cleanup spot.

"As a third baseman, he's a weapon," Matz said. "I can't say I've ever seen anything like him down there. You throw some offense on top of that, he's having a great year."

O'Dear backed up his typical stellar fielding at the hot corner with a big night at the plate Thursday, leading West Lawn to an 11-4 rout of Exeter in a Berks Legion League playoff opener at Owls Field.

He finished 4-for-5 with a triple, two doubles, four runs and three RBIs. Smith (6-0) gave up one run in seven solid innings to get the win against a Blue Jays (20-10) team that two regular-season wins against the Owls (18-10).

"We came into this game knowing that it wasn't going to be an easy one," O'Dear said. "We come into every game looking to play as hard as we can."

Exeter starter Anthony Fegely (4-3) walked two consecutive batters in the first. O'Dear smacked a flyball that sailed over the right fielder's head for a two-run triple, then scored on a Ryan Ebner groundout.

West Lawn added two more runs in the second with the help of two errors. The Owls then led the third off with a walk and a pair of singles before getting a pair of runs on a Marcos Sabolis sac-fly and a Greg Strupp bloop single.

Meanwhile, Smith retired the first 10 Blue Jays he faced, making that 7-0 gap look like a crater.

"He's the type of pitcher that can completely shut down your offense," Exeter coach Ernie Weller said. "It's a tall order beating him from a 0-0 game, let alone spotting him seven."

The Jays finally got a hit in the fourth, picked up a run in the fifth to cut it to 7-1, then got a one-out single from Tommy Rivas in the sixth. But O'Dear delivered a shot to the gut, snagging a Greg Marks liner and zinging it back to first in time for the double play.

"Every time I get the ball, my buddy's dad always yells: 'Here comes the rifle,'" O'Dear said. "I knew I had him."

The Owls added three more runs in the sixth as Smith hit an in-the-park home run and O'Dear delivered an RBI double. O'Dear led off the eighth with another double and was driven home on a pair of groundouts.

"A couple of their walks and some of their errors really turned into a lot of runs for us," Matz said. "We got some key hits, including O'Dear's triple in the first. There was a lot of offense there, taking advantage of some of their miscues."

Third-seeded West Lawn, last year's league runner-up, advances to a winners bracket semifinal today with No. 2 Gregg Post (7 p.m. at George Field). No. 6 Exeter will face No. 7 Kutztown in a 5 p.m. elimination game at Pineland Park.

"We've been in this position before," Weller said. "We're ready to make a run through the losers bracket."

"But we've gotta play better than we did tonight."

Skills, experience work to West Lawn's advantage in win over Gregg Post

By Don Stewart
Reading Eagle

It must be the postseason for West Lawn. With that baseball trifecta of pitching, fielding and timely hitting, the Owls are firing on all cylinders.

Most of West Lawn's players are battle-tested, thanks to last season's run to the Great Lakes Regionals, as well as Wilson High's consecutive league titles.

On the other hand, most of Gregg Post's players haven't had much playoff experience.

Despite getting the Owls at home, the Keys looked to be the less comfortable team Friday night in falling 10-3 in a Berks Legion League winners bracket semifinal at George Field.

The Keys (19-4), who face Muhlenberg today in a noon elimination game at Laureldale, struggled on the mound and in the field.

Lefty starter Americo Valle, who's been dominant all season, lasted just a third of an inning. By the time Andrew Lis took over, West Lawn had a 3-0 lead, thanks in part to a pair of walks.

Lis (6 $\frac{2}{3}$  innings) and Marvin Batista (two innings) did a decent job in relief, but poor fielding hurt their cause. Four of the seven runs charged to them were unearned, thanks to five errors.

The stellar fielding that has been a key for the Keys all season was there at times, though. West Lawn (19-10) grounded in to four inning-ending double plays, the lack of which might have resulted in a mercy-rule stoppage.

"Certainly we're hitting the cause of the four double plays. "But to hit into that many double plays, you've gotta be hitting the ball pretty hard, and we were."

West Lawn, which moves on to tonight's winners bracket final against top-seeded Boyertown (7 p.m. at Muhlenberg), also got another dominating performance from No. 2 starter Dexter Jablonski.

The 2005 grad limited Gregg Post to three runs (two earned) on five hits and three hit bats. With Jablonski keeping the Keys in check and the offense scoring in six of nine innings, Gregg Post never got back to within three runs of the lead.

"I thought he threw very well," Matz said of Jablonski. "He limited them to three single one-run innings. I thought he got into a nice little groove there."

The Owls seem to be in a nice little groove, overall. After winning 14 of their last 15 league games, they've blown out their first two playoff opponents by a combined score of 21-7.

It's an ideal wave of momentum to be riding into tonight's showdown with the Bears, whom West Lawn handled 7-2 last week. It was the Owls' first win against Boyertown since 2000.

"I think we were coming into our own at the end of the (regular) season," Jablonski said. "We've been winning a lot of games and playing really well."

"Just like last year, we're hoping to come into our own here at the end and make a good run through the playoffs."

Bears win a late one Saturday

From our news staff

Boyertown leadoff hitter Steven Bealer opened the first inning with a walk and capped it with a three-run home run to lead Boyertown to a 14-5 rout of West Lawn late Saturday night at Laurel Dale in the Berks Legion playoffs winners bracket final.

The Bears scored eight runs in the first inning off losing pitcher Jason Mays to avenge a late-season loss to the Owls.

That was all Garrett Crable needed as he struck out eight and allowed five runs on 12 hits in a complete game.

Shayne Houck went 4-for-5 and scored three runs for Boyertown, which collected 11 hits off four West Lawn pitchers. John Schultz went 3-for-5 and scored two runs for the Owls.

Night Owls knock out Tigers

Starter Ryan Ebner and West Lawn keep their hopes alive, rebounding from a late-night loss to Boyertown with a win over Fleetwood in an elimination game.

Going to bed at 2 a.m. followed by an early morning visit to church should have made starting pitcher Ryan Ebner tired. But it didn't.

Ebner and the rest of the third-seeded West

West Lawn 7
Fleetwood 2
Lawn Owls could have easily used lack of sleep as an excuse in its Berks Legion elimination game against fourth-seeded Fleetwood.

But they didn't.

What they did, though, was go out and put on a solid effort, defeating the Tigers 7-2 Sunday afternoon to stay alive in the tournament. The Owls must beat Boyertown twice to claim the title. They meet tonight at 7 p.m. at Laureldale. A victory earns them another game with the Bears Tuesday.

times this year. He was ready." Garcia's struggling and beet-red face proved that he wasn't and West Lawn gladly took advantage.

After allowing an early Fleetwood run in the first, the Owls went on to score five runs in innings three through five, highlighted by a John Schultz two-run double in the third.

Fleetwood made an attempt at a comeback in the sixth, when leadoff hitter Nate Weiss smacked a RBI double over Schultz's head in right field to close to the deficit to 5-2.

That proved to be the closest Fleetwood would get as the Tigers left the bases loaded three times and stranded 13 runners.

"We had two hits from John Schultz and Josh Smith that resulted in two runs," West Lawn manager Tony Matz said. "I know they had some opportunities to get some hits, but we pitched out of those situations."

West Lawn got two insurance runs in the bottom of the eighth as relief pitcher Mike Latona hit a single bringing in Ebner and catcher Marcus Sabolis.

The loss still doesn't diminish a successful season for the Tigers, who won their first two playoff games in team history this week end.

"I did expect to go (this far)," said Koehler. "I did have high expectations and I knew what type of club that we had. To make it to Sunday was really nice."

"It hurts to go home today, but we had a really nice year."

For the Owls, their journey is only beginning as they prep for a possible county title. West Lawn also hosts of this year's Region 2 tournament, beginning on July 25.

For continued success, Matz simply said his team needs to "continue to play real good."

"You look back at the winners bracket game, it got down to getting off to a good start and from that point on I thought though we played Boyertown pretty well," Matz said. "I thought our kids responded pretty well down 8-0. I told 'em last night they showed a lot heart and a lot of guts."

Pitcher Josh Smith, West Lawn force title showdown with Boyertown

By Darryl Grumling
Reading Eagle

The question for the West Lawn Owls Monday was whether Josh Smith's rocket-like right arm would be able to recharge in time for their Berks Legion League championship-round showdown against Boyertown.

Smith provided the answer to coach Tony Matz III when he arrived for batting practice at Owls Field prior to the trip to Muhlenberg High.

"We had no idea we were going to throw him," said Matz, who was leaning towards veteran Dexter Jablonski. "But he came to the field and said, 'Coach, I can pitch, and that changed our plans.'"

Smith's subsequent sublime performance may have changed the complexion of the championship chase — his 11-strikeout, four-hitter highlighting a 5-3 Owls win that forced a winner-take-all game at Gochnauer Field tonight at 7.

"We weren't going to lay down for them," Smith said of the three-time defending champion Bears. "I think we're just as good or even better than them, and we showed it tonight."

The Owls (21-11) also showed they can come from behind against the Bears (33-5), who had routed them 14-5 in Saturday's winners bracket final.

Alex Neiman's two-run double

West Lawn pitcher Josh Smith finishes with a complete game, giving up three runs on four hits.

put Boyertown up 2-0 in the second inning, and Bears starter Chuck Nicholas took a shutout into the sixth before a leadoff error helped the Owls begin their rally.

Eddie DeJesus reached when he knocked the ball out of first baseman Kenny Thorpe's glove after Thorpe fielded his bunt attempt. Two batters later, Craig O'Dear delivered an RBI single to get the Owls on the board.

"That was a big inning for them," said Boyertown coach Rick Moatz, whose team had won 14 straight Berks playoff games. "It definitely gave them some momentum."

Schultz (2-for-4).

"The last few times against them, we'd struggled a little," Ebner said. "There was just the shock of it (the opponent) being Boyertown. But tonight we were composed."

Smith, going on three days' rest after tossing seven strong innings in Thursday's first-round win over Exeter, walked just one and allowed one earned run in a 143-pitch effort.

"Yesterday, I couldn't even throw from the outfield," he said. "But, you know, it was Boyertown, and I wanted to beat them. I knew if I could keep putting up zeroes (after the second inning) and hold them down, we'd get some runs."

"He (Smith) did a good job," said Moatz, who has his top two pitchers, Matt Kelly and Garrett Crable, ready to go tonight. "He mixed his pitches well. He throws hard and gets his curve over, and it's hard to be up there protecting against everything."

Matz likely will counter with Jablonski — who beat Boyertown 7-2 in the Owls' league finale — as the longtime rivals meet for the fifth time this season (they've split the four meetings).

"Josh is absolutely the most competitive person I've ever met," Matz said. "He wants to be in these games all the time, which is why I think he came to the park and said, 'I want to pitch.'"

And why the Owls still have something to hoot about.

Second to none: Owls win title

West Lawn tops rival Boyertown in a classic battle, sheds runner-up status

By Darryl Grumling
Reading Eagle

The five-act passion play that has been this summer's American Legion baseball rivalry between West Lawn and Boyertown couldn't have provided a more dramatic climax Wednesday night.

The third straight Berks League playoff championship showdown between the familiar foes had it all — mind-numbing momentum swings, nail-biting tension and multiple heroes.

And when the instant diamond classic was settled at Muhlenberg's Gochbauer Field, the Owls had finally shredded their reputation as perennial runners-up with a memorable 7-5 victory.

"All year long our focus was to get to this game," said John Schultz, who tossed the final two innings — including a heart-stopping ninth — for the save. "Once we got here, we just let loose."

To be fair, some uncharacteristically loose defense by the Bears (who committed four errors leading to six unearned runs) had a lot to do with West Lawn's first Berks title since 1999.

But when the chips were down, it was Owls (22-11) who delivered the clutch hits and made the key plays.

There was the gritty performance of starting pitcher Dexter Jablonski (8-1), who after being roughed up for four first-inning runs kept Boyertown at bay for the next six innings.

There was fourth outfielder Jeff Smith, who in a starting role was 2-for-5 with two RBIs — singling in the go-ahead run in a three-run eighth.

There was veteran third baseman Craig O'Dear, whose double off tiring Bears ace Matt Kelly (7-1) set the table for the game-turning rally.

There was a strong defensive effort keyed by shortstop Greg Strupp.

And last, but certainly not least, there was the spectacular game-ending catch by Josh Smith on Shayne Houck's tracer to left-center with two runners on.

"We've gotten contributions from a lot of different avenues throughout the tournament," West Lawn coach Tony Matz III said. "That's been real nice."

The fantastic finish more than made up for a surprisingly sluggish start for the Owls, who with many returnees from last year's national regional qualifying squad lost their first three games and were 6-6 at one point.

"We huddled up back then and came up with some goals," Schultz said. "We wanted to win every (remaining) league game, and then win something — preferably beating Boyertown for the county championship."

That goal was in doubt in the first inning, when Nole Saylor launched a solo homer, Houck doubled in two runs and Mike Schwager singled in another to put the Bears up 4-0.

But the Owls took advantage of an error and three walks in a three-run third capped by Jeff Smith's RBI single, and tied with another unearned run in the fifth on Ebner's RBI single.

In the decisive eighth, Jeff Smith's slapped a one-out single to score O'Dear, and two more runs scored when Josh Smith reached on an error.

"We didn't make some plays in the field, we made some mistakes on the bases, and that's what cost us," Boyertown coach Rick Moatz said. "They're a good team. They keep battling, they're hard to get out. And tonight they made all the plays, and that was the difference."

It also helped soothe the case of second-it-is that had plagued the team for the previous two seasons.

"This win definitely means a lot to this team," O'Dear said. "We always hear about getting free bids for hosting tournaments, but this year we definitely earned it."

In about as dramatic a fashion as possible.

Berks teams face challenging road

By Don Stewart
Reading Eagle

Betting on Berks in Region 2 is like projecting Exxon-Mobil to have a nice year. Since its formation in 1975, the tournament has been a playground for the Berks Legion League.

At least one Berks team has been in each of the tournament's 31 finals, with a league rep winning all but seven crowns. No other Region 2 league comes close to Berks' .715 all-time winning percentage.

But could this be the year the league gets shut out? Yeah, sure, and the Kansas City Royals will win the World Series.

Seriously, there are some significant bumps in the road for Berks' two representatives — West Lawn and Boyertown. Throw in a tough field that includes defending state champ Nor-Gwyn, and it's not inconceivable that both could be knocked out before the final.

The two teams will have to prove they have the horsepower to mow past those hurdles when the Pennsylvania Region 2 Legion Tournament opens today at Owls Field. Boyertown takes on North Parkland at 9:45 a.m., and host West Lawn takes on Lower Macungie at 7:30 p.m.

The Owls (22-11) are coming off a dramatic performance in the league playoffs, where they earned their first title since 1999. They finished second at the Region 2 tourney last year.

But they'll have to win without Josh Smith, a vital piece of both accomplishments. Smith

(7-0, 1.67) is throwing in Friday's prestigious Cape Cod High School Classic in Massachusetts and will be unavailable this week for the Owls.

"You have to look past it and just play with what you've got," West Lawn coach Tony Matz III said. "This isn't gonna be the first time that something like this may have happened. It's not gonna be the last.

"It'd be great if everyone would put Legion baseball first, but it doesn't work that way. You just gotta play with what you've got, and what we've got is a pretty good baseball team."

Matz still has plenty of potent arms at his disposal, including Dexter Jablonski (8-1), Jason Mays (2-3) and lefty Ryan Ebner (3-2). And the Owls have been getting it done at the plate, outscoring opponents 260-167 while hitting .300 as a team.

The playoffs seem to bring out the best in West Lawn, which reached the national regionals last year. Matz said he's sensed a different attitude in his players since the end of the regular season.

Pennsylvania Region 2 Legion Tournament

When, where: Tuesday through Saturday, West Lawn's Owls Field.

Format: Double elimination.

At stake: The winner advances to next week's Pennsylvania State Tournament at Boyertown.

Today's first-round matchups: Boyertown vs. North Parkland, 9:45 a.m.; Nor-Gwyn vs. Southern Area, 1 p.m.; Pottsville vs. Nazareth, 4 p.m.; West Lawn vs. Lower Macungie, 7:30 p.m.

Last year: In its first Region 2 berth since 1990, Nor-Gwyn beat West Lawn 11-5 in the final to win its first title.

West Lawn Owls

Coach: Tony Matz III.

Record: 22-11.

"Those are so much more exciting than going through the regular season," he said of playoff games. "There's just a different feel to the games."

For the Bears (33-6), there's a feeling of disappointment lingering from last week's league final, when they committed four errors and allowed six unearned runs in a 7-5 loss to the Owls.

There's also a temptation of complacency. As the host team for next week's state tournament, Boyertown doesn't have to finish in the top two this week to advance.

"We had a couple of good days of practice here," coach Rick Moatz said. "I think we're focused on what we need to do."

"I don't know that we're down. We knew we made some mistakes and let them back into the game. When you give up six unearned runs, you're not gonna beat a whole lot teams."

His team opens this morning against a hot North Parkland (23-4) team that's won 22 straight games. The Buffaloes lost 9-3 to Boyertown May 27, though.

"We've seen them before and we know they have some good pitching," Moatz said. "So I guess we know what to expect."

PENNSYLVANIA REGION 2 LEGION TOURNAMENT

Smith gives Owls big boost

Not expected to pitch Tuesday night, Josh Smith takes the mound for his team and leads West Lawn past Lower Macungie.

By Don Stewart
Reading Eagle

When he got out of bed Tuesday, Josh Smith had no plans of pitching that night.

But when the senior-to-be arrived at Owls Field before West Lawn's Pennsylvania Region 2 Legion Tournament opener against Lower Macungie, his plans changed.

"At first, I wasn't gonna pitch," said Smith, who had planned to rest for Friday's Cape Cod Classic showcase game in Massachusetts.

me here to pitch.' I just wanted to be here for the team."

After a talk with assistant coach Steve Carroll, Smith decided to play under a limited pitch count. He wound up giving his team seven strong innings in a 9-4 win against the Mighty Macs.

More importantly, he helped keep the Owls' pitching staff fresh heading into the upcoming rounds. West Lawn (23-11) can start Dexter Jablonski (8-1) tonight in a 7:30 winners bracket semifinal against defending champ Nor-Gwyn.

"Coming into today, I wasn't even expecting him," Owls coach Tony Matz III said of Smith. "When you look at it, we feel that we didn't use a pitcher today because we weren't anticipated one."

Reading Eagle; Susan L. Angstadt

West Lawn's Craig O'Deair, left, is congratulated by teammates after scoring a run during the Owls' 9-4 win over Lower Macungie.

Smith (8-0) got off to an uncharacteristic start against the Macs (19-10). Leadoff hitter Chris Kender singled to left, then reached second when Smith threw the ball away on an errant pick-off attempt.

Kender scored two hitters later to give Lower Macungie the 1-0 lead.

"I was mad because I didn't hit my spot," Smith said. "I'm not really nervous at all up there when I'm pitching. I just get a little mad when I miss my spot and they (capitalize)."

West Lawn tied it in the second when Craig O'Deair led off with a triple, then scored on a Ryan Ebner single. But the Macs continued to hit Smith hard, getting another run off two third-inning doubles.

He didn't get into a groove until the Owls scored three in the fourth inning. Working with a 4-2 lead, Smith was cooler on the mound.

"It gave me a total boost," he said.

Smith cruised through the next three innings, allowing just one hit and a walk before giving way to Mike Latona in the eighth. He left with a 9-2 lead, thanks to a big three-run seventh that basically sealed it.

With two on and no one out, John Schultz delivered a two-run single, with speedy Eddie DeJesus just beating the throw from left. Schultz would score on a pinch-hit single by Jeff Smith.

Next up for the Owls is Nor-Gwyn, a team they lost to four times last season en route to second-place finishes at the Region 2 and state tournaments. The Hawks (31-7), who return almost all of last year's team, beat Southern Area 12-2 Tuesday.

Smith is leaving for Massachusetts today and won't be at the ballpark. He said he'll be getting regular updates on via his cell phone, though. Smith would be available to pitch Saturday if the Owls make it that far.

"I'll be staying in my hotel worrying about it all day," he said. "It's a tough situation. It's horrible."

Despite dropping game, Owls encouraged by 'opportunities'

West Lawn rallies from an early five-run deficit to make it interesting, but Nor-Gwyn comes away with the victory.

By Don Stewart
Reading Eagle

In most circumstances, dropping a tough, two-run game to a team that's beaten you five straight times would be just a bit deflating.

Nor-Gwyn	5
West Lawn	3

But for West Lawn, Wednesday night's 5-3 Pennsylvania Region 2 winners bracket semifinal loss to Nor-Gwyn could almost be considered encouraging. The Owls had several chances to tie it up or take the lead against the defending region and state champs, but stranding five runners in scoring position.

"I don't think that this is a deflating loss," West Lawn coach Tony Matz III said. "This was a well-played game. We had some opportunities."

The Owls (23-12) still have life. They'll face Pottsville in a 4:30 elimination game today at Owls Field. Nor-Gwyn (32-7) advanced to tonight's winners bracket final against Boyertown at 7:30.

Down 5-0 after three innings, the Owls (23-11) put together a three-run fourth to make a game of it. Craig O'Deair connected for a one-out double, then scored on a Ryan Ebner single.

Ebner, who reached third on a throwing error by the catcher, was driven in by Jeff Smith, who tripled to the right-field corner. Right fielder Ryan Igmias overthrew the cutoff man, allowing a pumped-up Smith to cross the plate with a roar.

Smith, who lost his helmet on his way to third, was in the lineup in place of Josh Smith (no relation), who was in Massachusetts for Friday's Cape Cod Classic showcase game.

"We have five solid outfielders," Matz said, "and Jeff ends up getting the short end of the stick. When he gets to play, there's no loss in the lineup."

West Lawn was shut out the rest of the night by Nor-Gwyn starter Alex Hague, who threw a complete-game on 148 pitches. Hague gave up nine hits and three walks while striking out five.

The night didn't get off to a promising start for West Lawn as Dexter Jablonski plunked leadoff hitter Mark Renda in the leg. It began a two-run inning, with both runs scoring on a Brendan Fanslau double, the result of a fly ball to left that Smith lost in the glare.

The Hawks (31-7) continued to beat on Jablonski in the second, when they scored three more runs on three hits and a walk. Eric Enns delivered a two-out RBI single before Greg Folgia's two-run bloop single to left.

"We beat ourselves in the second inning," Matz said. "I knew that would come back to haunt us. Against a team like that, every run is going to be important."

With Jablonski already at 40 pitches after two innings and a rout seemingly in the works, the Owls got some action in the bullpen. But Jablonski found his rhythm in the third. He retired 12 of the next 14 hitters he faced, keeping Nor-Gwyn in check long enough for West Lawn to get back into it.

The Hawks threatened to strengthen their lead in the seventh, when they got two singles and a hit batsmen to load the bases with two outs. But Smith saved at least two runs with an impressive running snag of a Brent Terlecky fly ball that ended the inning.

Jablonski's final line was five earned runs on seven hits, three walks in 7 1/3 innings. He struck out three and received some well-deserved applause when he left the game.

"Dexter started out tough," Matz said. "He really bounced back nicely. We had our chances. We played a tough game."

West Lawn's Mays, Surgeoner

A rules interpretation by Legion officials knocks pitchers Jason Mays and Clint Surgeoner out for the rest of the season after the pair participated in a football camp for Wilson. West Lawn officials plan to appeal.

Jason Mays

Clint Surgeoner

ruled ineligible

By Don Stewart
Reading Eagle

West Lawn pitchers Jason Mays and Clint Surgeoner arrived at Owls Field Wednesday night fully expecting to be able to play in the Pennsylvania Region 2 Legion Tournament.

But, much to their surprise, they'd been declared ineligible for the remainder of the season.

The reason? Mays and Surgeoner had missed the start of the tournament due to their participation in a Wilson High School football camp at Bloomsburg.

Under state rules, players who leave a regional or state tournament "to play in another amateur baseball program shall be disqualified from further postseason play." Football's not baseball, and Mays had missed the start of the Region 2 tourney last year to attend the camp.

"I'm well aware of the rules," Owls coach Tony Matz III said. "I knew that said 'baseball,' so I'm not interpreting that for anything other than what it says. Now you tell me this year that it means more than that?"

Actually, that's exactly what Matz was told. Under national Legion rules, any player who participates in "another non-sanctioned baseball event such as exhibition game, tournament showcase, combine or other youth programs shall be ineligible for postseason tournament play."

Apparently, Mays and Surgeoner's case fall under "other youth programs."

The national rule has been on the books for years, according to state director of activities Skip Carnes. Problem is, Carnes said he believed the national rules didn't kick in until the national tournaments began. Actually they go into effect at the start of state regionals.

"It's a national rule," Carnes said. "It's always been. I wasn't aware of it. I was made aware of it when we attended the national meetings in October. The national rules come into effect once the playoffs begin."

Carnes informed the state's regional directors, but apparently word didn't trickle down far enough.

Fumed over losing his No. 3 starter in Mays (2-3, 2.65) and a steady reliever in Surgeoner

(0-2, 5.14), Matz has filed an appeal with the national appeals board.

Carnes said the only way that an appeal will go through is if West Lawn can prove that Carnes misinterpreted the rule or gave false information. Since Carnes had misinterpreted the rule in past seasons, Matz appears to have a shot.

The rub is that it typically takes three to seven days for a decision. It could be moot for West Lawn, which beat Pottsville 18-1 Thursday and faces Boyertown today. The Owls would be eliminated with a loss.

PENNSYLVANIA REGION 2 LEGION TOURNAMENT

It takes a (wet) while, but Owls win big

The game takes 4½ hours from start to finish. But West Lawn waits out the weather and pounds Pottsville.

By Justin Kunkel
Reading Eagle

Three outs into Thursday night's Region 2 Legion Tournament game against Pottsville, West Lawn pitcher Ryan Ebner spent about an hour and a half on second base.

West Lawn 18 Pottsville 1

Inside

■ Two West Lawn pitchers ineligible. D3 baseman Kirk Gottschall around 6:50 to put the Owl's ahead 4-0.

Ebner wasn't actually standing on second base, of course — nothing was on second base except a white tarp, courtesy of a long rain delay. Nevertheless, once the tarp was removed, Ebner picked up right where he left off and helped West Lawn smoke Pottsville 18-1.

"Dealing with the rain wasn't hard at all," Ebner said, "The team was ready to go and they were fired up. You can tell by the score that they were ready to hit."

Though the game was scheduled to start at 4 p.m., some afternoon showers pushed the start time back to 5 o'clock. By the time the second rain delay was over, the tournament nightcap between Boyertown and Nor-Gwyn had been postponed until today.

A loss to Pottsville would have knocked West Lawn from the tournament, but by the time the rains came the Owls were in control.

After Ebner shut down the Lions quietly in the top of the first, John Schultz led off the bottom half with a single and stole second. Eddie DeJesus and Craig O'Dearir followed with singles of their own, setting the stage for Ebner's double. Then came the monotony of the rain delay, which didn't seem to phase the Owls.

Ebner not only pitched and hit his team to the win, but also helped out on the impromptu grounds crew that pulled the tarp over the infield.

"We just told them to have a seat in the dugout, wait out the rain, and then get the tarp off," West Lawn coach Tony Matz III said. "They were pretty loose to begin with."

The players all had their own way of dealing with the delay. The Lions killed time bowling with baseballs and plastic cups on the floor of their dugout.

West Lawn's players said that a large part of the time was spent picking on relief pitcher Isaac Wenrich.

"We played blitz, which is a card game," Ebner said. "And we made fun of Isaac."

Wenrich pitched three strong innings in relief of Ebner, but even that didn't stop the ribbing from his teammates.

"We just like making fun of Isaac," said Schultz, who went 5-for-5 with 4 RBI. "Everybody does it."

All joking aside, the Owls now face yet another game against rival Boyertown, a team they beat for the Berks Championship last week.

"I can't tell if they really respect us or not," Ebner said. "I guess we'll find out tomorrow."

If Boyertown wins its 9:45 a.m. game against Nor-Gwyn, it will meet the Owls at 7:30 p.m. If the Bears lose, the game will be played at 12:30 p.m. instead.

Either way, Matz said that the Owls should still be loose and ready to play.

"They know how to play these elimination games," he said. "They know they need to show up. Honestly, it really comes down to the opportunity to play another game, when you play an elimination game you just want to play. Your opponent doesn't really matter."

Owls beat Bears to stay alive

West Lawn goes 10 innings to down Boyertown and avoid elimination. Next up is Nor-Gwyn with a berth in the state tournament at stake.

By Don Stewart

This year's West Lawn Owls team is becoming American Legion baseball's version of the Cardiac Kids.

Like a long distance runner who likes to charge from the back of the pack, the Owls love to make things tough on themselves. Or maybe they're just at their best when their collective backs are against the wall.

West Lawn did it again Friday night, going to extra innings to extend their season with a 5-4 win against Boyertown in a Pennsylvania Region 2 Legion Tournament game. The Owls were in an elimination situation, while the Bears had clinched the final with a win against Nor-Gwyn earlier in the day.

Boyertown's dance partner for today's title game will be decided when West Lawn faces Nor-Gwyn in a 12:30 game this afternoon at Owls Field. The final will begin 30 minutes after the completion of the first game.

The winner of that first game will earn a berth in the state tournament, regardless of what happens in the final. As the host team, Boyertown (36-7) has an automatic berth.

West Lawn (24-12), already missing three key pitchers due to suspensions, put five different faces on the mound Friday night to get past Boyertown. Dexter Jablonski (9-2), who pitched the final 1½ innings to get the win, will presumably start today.

The Owls will face a Hawks team that's beaten them five straight times, including 5-3 in Wednesday's winners bracket semifinal.

"Oh yeah," first baseman Ryan Ebner said, asked if his team had any magic left. "Dexter's got a lot left. We've gonna be ready for them this time. The Nor-Gwyn shock is over."

Ebner delivered the two biggest hits of the night for the Owls. With two on and one out in the bottom of the 10th, he hit a sharp grounder to second baseman Steve Bealer.

Bealer, normally Boyertown's catcher, booted the grounder, allowing speedy Eddie DeJesus to score from second. DeJesus reached second on a double two batters before Ebner stepped to the plate.

"It feels good," Ebner said. "We wanted this one real bad. We felt we should have finished it off earlier, but we showed heart coming out in extra innings."

West Lawn was on its way to a 4-3 win with two outs and one on in the top of the ninth when Nole Saylor singled to left. Boyertown coach Rick Moatz gave Garret Crable the go-ahead sign to head home from second.

Third baseman Craig O'Deair cut off the throw from left and zinged it home, just in time to get Crable. But Crable knocked the ball out of Marcus Sabolis' mitt in the ensuing collision at the plate.

"It was a little bit of a let-down," Ebner said, "but we'd been hitting well the whole tournament and we felt we could come back."

West Lawn, which beat Boyertown twice in a row to come back and win the Berks League Tournament last week, had gone ahead 4-3 in the seventh on a two-run single by Ebner.

John Schultz led off with a walk, then went to second when Boyertown reliever Alex Neiman walked O'Deair. Neiman then threw a wild pitch to get both runners into scoring position before Ebner singled into the gap in right-center to put the Owls ahead.

Owls' emotional week ends with tough loss

West Lawn, missing three pitchers ruled ineligible for their participation in other athletic activities, leads by as many as six runs, but can't hold on and falls to Nor-Gwyn to see its season end.

By Don Stewart

Reading Eagle

Just 13 hours removed from an extra-inning win against Boyertown, West Lawn clearly was approaching life No. 9 Saturday at the Pennsylvania Region 2 Legion Tournament.

Standing in the way of a state tournament berth was a Nor-Gwyn team that had beaten the Owls five straight times. And the Hawks were throwing Greg Folgia, who many regard as the state's best player.

West Lawn led by as many as six early on and was beating the odds for six innings. But Nor-Gwyn's bats awoke in the seventh as the Hawks began a dramatic rally that ended in an 11-9 win at Owls Field.

It was the climax of an emotional season for the Owls, who rallied from a third-round loss to win the Berks League title. They attempted to survive the Region 2 tourney without top pitcher Josh Smith, No. 3 starter Jason Mays and reliever Clint Surgeoner.

Despite appeals, the three were declared ineligible due to their participation in the Cape Cod Showcase (Smith) and Wisconsin football camp (Mays and Surgeoner).

"Our team battled through some tremendous adversity this week," West Lawn coach Tony Matz III said. "They wouldn't go away. They were absolutely resilient against arguably the best pitcher in the state. They were awesome."

Nor-Gwyn got a pair of runs in the first as Folgia smacked an RBI double, then scored on Adam Soley's single. But West Lawn (25-13) answered with six runs in the second off Folgia, who has been largely untouchable this season.

Folgia faced 11 batters and threw 38 pitches in the first. He bounced back, though, allowing just three runs in the next eight innings.

The Missouri recruit threw 172 pitches. Don't expect to see him on the mound early in the state tournament.

"Right now, I think I'm gonna start against Boyertown," a weary Folgia joked, referring to the Region 2 final that followed Saturday afternoon.

Down 8-4 heading into the seventh, Nor-Gwyn scored seven runs (five earned) on nine hits in three innings against Dexter Jablonski, who relieved Ryan Ebner.

After the Hawks scored the first three of those runs in the seventh to pull to within 8-7, the Owls walked off the field as if they were losing.

"Our heads were hanging," third baseman Craig O'Dear said.

Down to their last out, West Lawn began a characteristically dramatic rally. Folgia hit Marcus Sabolis, walked Jablonski and gave up a single to Greg Strupp to load the bases.

Pinch-hitter Mike Latona then singled to left to score Sabolis. But Jablonski got caught between second and third and was thrown out to end it.

West Lawn's Ryan Ebner pitches in Saturday's 11-9 loss to Nor-Gwyn.

"We knew he was a really good pitcher," Latona said of Folgia, "but our adrenaline was pumping, beating Boyertown last night. We just wanted to get to the championship game.

"I guess we just fell apart at the end." ■ Contact Don Stewart at 610-371-5065 or dstewart@readingeagle.com.

Berks Legion turns in

Boyertown and West Lawn retain their status as the league's top teams, but not without some memorable challenges.

By Don Stewart
Reading Eagle

The days are getting shorter and the wartime-level coverage of the NFL preseason is getting nauseating. Yes, it's finally time to wrap up the Berks American Legion League baseball season.

When the 2006 campaign began back in late May, plenty of teams had high hopes for challenging Boyertown and West Lawn for league supremacy. But Berks' top two programs held their ground, spearheading another memorable showing for what could be the state's strongest league.

A glance at some of the season's top stories:

■ Tight races in new places: The Berks Legion League switched to a three-division format this summer, with teams grouped by historical strength and size of their districts.

The Red Division, considered the strongest, got four playoff berths, while the White and Blue divisions got two apiece. The extra spots proved well deserved as Red teams went 46-4 in interdivision games.

The new look created some intrigue as most of the playoff spots were decided in the final week of the season. On the last day of the regular season, Exeter beat Shillington for the final Red Division spot, while Kutztown knocked off Topton for the last Blue Division berth.

■ Case for contraction?: Low turnout affected a handful of teams. The most notable was Oley, which went winless for the first time since 1968.

Down to just seven players from Oley Valley High School, the Lynx had to bring in bodies from Fleetwood, Exeter and Reading to avoid forfeiting the season.

Birdsboro, Conrad Weiser, Exeter, Fleetwood, Topton and Shillington also carried less than the limit of 18 players. Meanwhile, Gregg Post benefited from the absence of the Reading White Sox, who were temporarily dropped due to lack of numbers.

■ Rivera earns a trip: Gregg Post catcher Luis M. Rivera was the only Berks League player chosen for last month's Pennsylvania American Legion East-West Classic.

Rivera, who hit .338 in league games, helped the East to a 4-2 win against the West.

■ Kelly or Smith?: Boyertown and West Lawn faced each other six times this summer. Still, we never got to see a head-to-head matchup of the league's two most highly regarded pitchers.

West Lawn's Josh Smith went 8-0 with a 1.63 ERA and 75 strikeouts in 71 $\frac{2}{3}$  innings, while Boyertown's Matt Kelly was 9-2 with a 0.66 ERA and 113 strikeouts in 95 $\frac{1}{3}$  innings. Maybe the showdown will take place this spring, when both will be seniors.

■ Kutztown comeback: Kutztown High School's run to the District 3-AA title and the second round of the state tournament pushed the start of the Cougars' Legion season back to June 10.

Kutztown coach Joel Graeff faced a similar situation in 1996. His team went 7-16 that season.

This year's team fared much better as it reached the Berks playoffs despite having to play 20 games in 29 days.

■ Fleetwood's finish: Kutztown's season was hampered by division rival Fleetwood, which beat the Cougars three times en route to the best season in program history.

Fleetwood finished 15-10 for its first winning record, won its first two playoff games and was one of the final four teams remaining in the league tournament.

The leader was pitcher Justin Garcia, who went 7-1 with a 0.87 ERA and a Berks-best 71 strikeouts in league play.

■ Gregg Post comes close: A certain first-year Legion writer picked Gregg Post to finish last in the Red Division. He should have known better.

The Keys enjoyed their best season since 1973, when they won the last of their 27 league titles. They finished 20-5, with all of their losses coming to West Lawn and Boyertown, and were one of the final four teams remaining in the league tournament.

■ West Lawn wins: After a loss to Boyertown in the Berks League winners bracket final, the West Lawn looked to be heading toward its third straight runner-up finish to the Bears.

But the Owls came back like a horror-movie slasher. They won three straight, including a pair of two-run games against Boyertown, for their first league title since 1999.

"All year long our focus was to get to this game," outfielder John Schultz said after West Lawn's 7-5 win in the final. "Once we got here, we just let loose."

■ Ruling declaws Owls: At the Region 2 Tournament, West Lawn faced a tough field that included Boyertown and defending state champ Nor-Gwyn. Then the Owls' task was made tougher when they lost three pitchers in two separate rulings.

another memorable run

West Lawn's ace, Josh Smith, threw in the prestigious Cape Cod Classic Showcase and was ruled ineligible for the final day of the tournament. In a more controversial decision, No. 3 starter Jason Mays and reliever Clint Surgeoner were declared ineligible due to their participation in Wilson High School's football camp.

The Owls lasted until the final day, when a weary pitching staff was partially to blame for an 11-9 elimination-game loss to Nor-Gwyn.

■ Bears back on top: In the end, this season belonged to Boyertown.

It wasn't the most seasoned or consistent team ever to take the field at Bear Stadium. But, behind dominant pitching and clutch hitting, Boyertown cruised to its 18th Region 2 title and 19th Pennsylvania State championship.

"I think it shows what they have inside them," coach Rick Moatz said after his team qualified for the national regionals for the 25th time.

"I think they battle to the end. Obviously, our inexperience and youth show up at times, but they let it go and keep fighting back. It's a sign of winners."

It was a team that lacked superstars, but managed to peak when it mattered.

"Our pitching has been amazing," catcher Steve Bealer said after a 13-0 win against NorChester in the state final. "We don't have the egos. We get runs when it matters and try to play some small-ball to advance runners, and it's worked wonderfully."
